The 1949 ECHO, published by the student body of The Northeast Missouri State Teachers College at Kirksville, Missouri, represents a pictorial record of . . .

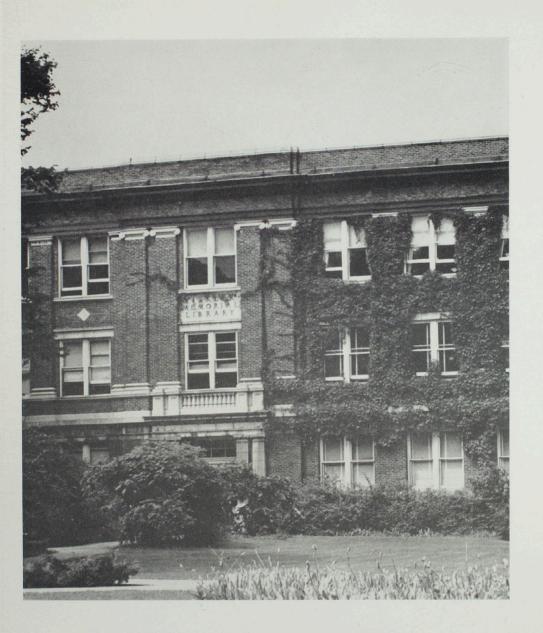

. . . a year's activities on the campus of the oldest Teachers College west of the Mississippi River. This college, founded in 1867 by . . .

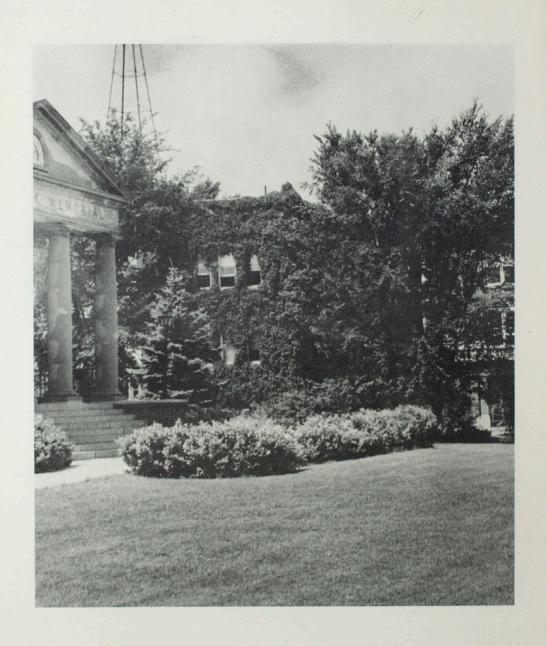

. . . Joseph Baldwin, has grown from one building in the middle of a large plot of ground to the present large, beautiful and still . . .

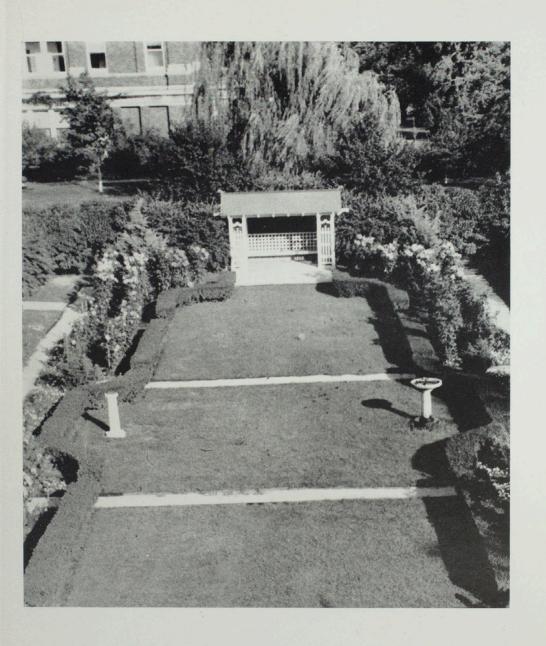

. . . growing institution. It has always been the policy of administrators of the college to provide the best possible education for the . . .

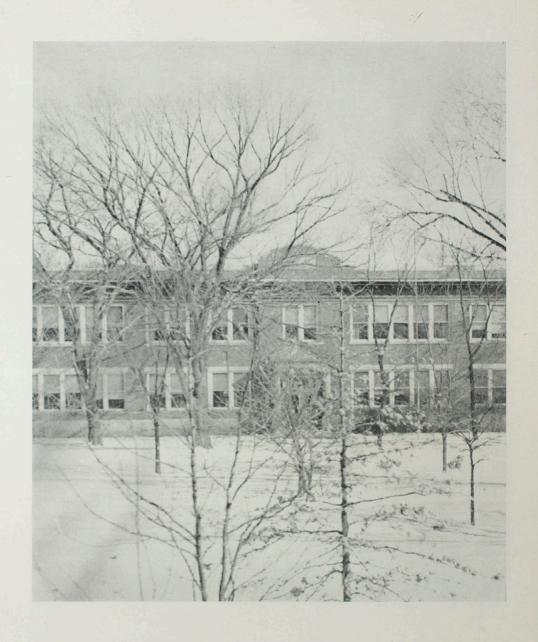

. . . future teachers of the state with the best faculty available under conditions as close to ideal as possible. To those people . . .

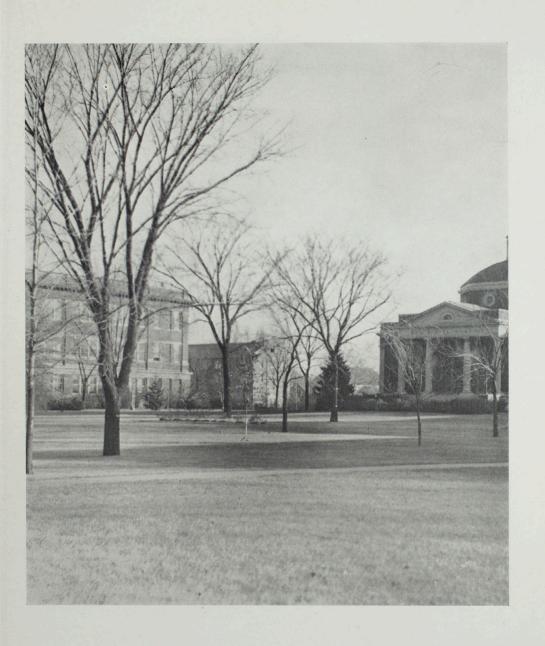

. . . who, during the history of the college, have worked hard and long for the improvement of the college this book is dedicated. To further . . .

. . . the aims and ambitions of those in the past, to keep alive the spirit of

. . . education, to strive ever for improvement; these are the heritage of the present . . .

ADMINISTRATION AND FACULTY

HUBERT WHEELER

State Commissioner of Education

As State Commissioner of Education, Mr. Hubert Wheeler is supervisor of all of Missouri's public schools and in that capacity he meets with the Board of Regents of the college as ex-officio member. In this manner Mr. Wheeler keeps in close contact with the policies and management of the college.

Also the Commissioner of Education is concerned with carrying out the policies of the State Board of Education; the improving of all phases of instruction concerned with education, health and general welfare of learners in the various levels and the assisting in effectively organizing, managing and financing the education program of the state.

W. A. Cable, Hannibal, president; Roy Quinn, Moberly, vice-president. Second row: P. M. Marr, Milan; Herbert Sears, LaPlata; E. E. Swain, Kirksville; Roland A. Zeigel, Kirksville.

Board of Regents

The highest administrative and governing body of the college is the Board of Regents, made up of six members selected from outstanding business and professional men from the Northeast Missouri area. The board sets the policies and handles final business for the college, including such work as employment of teachers, consideration of bids for work, approval of bills and signing of contracts.

The work of the board has been especially challenging and busy since the initiation of the new building program for the campus. The Board of Regents stands as the highest administrative unit of the institution.

MRS. WALTER H. RYLE

WALTER HARRINGTON RYLE

The eleven years that Walter H. Ryle has been President of Northeast Missouri State Teachers College have formed an era of many improvements. Through his efforts the faculty has increased in quality of training and number. Through his efforts it is now possible to do graduate work toward a Master of Arts Degree in five fields. A graduate of the Teachers College, President Ryle was a member of the faculty for nine years before being named President in 1937. From his desk in Baldwin Hall President Ryle keeps a finger on the pulse of the whole school and does all in his power to help carry on in the traditions of superior scholastic training for the prospective teachers who come to this college. Primarily a teacher, President Ryle still finds time to devote hours to his garden and an occasional hunting trip. He is married, has one son, Walter H., Jr., and resides in a spacious home in Kirksville.

Mary Off Secretary

FLETTA JONES General Secretary

ROBERT McKINNEY, A.B.

Assistant to the Office of the President

The task of representing the president of the college, both on and off the campus, falls to the assistant to the president, Mr. Robert McKinney. This office also is responsible for coordinating all the activities of the college to the end that a sound public relations program for the college may be developed and sustained. The office is always busily occupied in the printing of official documents, making preliminary arrangements for printing contracts and the supervision of the preparation of such publications. The office maintains the administrative supervision of the Alumni Office and the organizing and developing of mailing lists.

Dean of Instruction

ROBERT C. AUKERMAN, A.B., A.M., Ph.D.

The main functions of the Dean of Instruction include taking charge of the educational program of the college, formulating and activating a program of supervision of instruction of the college, acting as chairman of the Graduate Council and the Faculty Council, making all reports to regional and national organizations on Teacher Education. His office also handles registration, permanent records, class schedules, mail classification, assemblies and other programs.

RUTH RODERICK, Secretary

LOLA M. KENNEDY, Secretary

C. H. ALLEN, B.S., M.A., Ph.D.

Division of Personnel Service

Directly or indirectly, almost every phase of student activity is connected with the Division of Personnel Service—social life, health, the testing and guidance program and the veteran's guidance service. At the head of this division is Dr. C. H. Allen.

The faculty members and advisors guide the student in choice of curricula and activities which will be beneficial to him in the future.

The Dean of Women supervises the college social life and helps beginning freshmen to make needed adjustments.

The Veterans Administration Guidance Center carries on a program of counseling and testing to aid any veteran student interested in this service.

Free health examinations and consultations are provided. The college physician is more than willing to serve in order to maintain the health standards of the college.

MELVA RAE GINGERICH, A.B., M.A.

Dean of Women

Always willing to lend a helping hand, Miss Melva Rae Gingerich, the Dean of Women, aids students in social and personal problems and is instrumental in the supervision of a wholesome and stimulating program of social activities on the campus.

As sponsor of the Pan-Hellenic Council, the Dean of Women works closely with the social sororities on the campus. Also, Miss Gingerich is chairman of the Social Calendar and activities of the college are cleared through her office.

The Dean of Women is supervisor of housing and prepares an approved list of rooms, which necessitates the inspection of rooming houses and the working out of rules and regulations both for the students and the landlords.

Miss Gingerich prepares and organizes the Freshman Handbook which is given to all incoming freshmen. The office is correlated with all other activities of the Division of Personnel Service.

ELI F. MITTLER, B.S., M.A.

Head of Division of Extension Services and Director

Bureau of Placements

Division of Extension Services

The purpose of the Extension Office is to extend the services of the college. Out of town classes and correspondence courses are available. Visual education films are provided the surrounding area for a nominal fee. The placements bureau falls under this heading. Perhaps the most important duty is that of the field service. Not only are students secured for enrollment at this college but the attempt is made to show seniors in the surrounding area the need for higher education.

FOREST L. CROOKS, B.S., A.M., Director, Bureau of Field Service; NOAH P. RICHARDSON, B.S., Director, Bureau of Correspondence and Extension Service; RICHARD E. ST. CLAIR, B.S., M.A., Director of Inservice Education; Kenneth C. Sykes, A.B., Director, Bureau of Visual Education.

MADELENE SYKES, Secretary, Division of Extension Service; Ellene Duffie, Secretary, Division of Correspondence.

Bailey Wright, B.A., M.A.
Business Manager

Division of Business Service

The Division of Business Service, under the supervision of Bailey Wright, division head and business manager, takes care of all financial and business books of the college. One of its important duties is that of handling the Student Memorial Fund. This fund is for the use of students who momentarily need financial aid. Rather than a large sum being meted out to a few, relatively small loans are provided for many. Stenographic and duplicating service for the faculty and numerous other duties fall under this office.

Veteran's Administration Guidance Center

Acting as a connecting link between the veteran students and the regional veteran's administration offices is the Guidance Center. Under the direction of H. L. Bates, the staff comprised of Gene Tuggle, training officer; George Volmert, assistant vocational appraiser, and James Wordsley, work with the veterans of this area in helping to solve subsistence difficulties, administering aptitude tests and giving general courseling.

This office keeps a large number of records on each veteran enrolled for training under the GI bill. The Guidance Center personnel works closely with Mr. Allen and the Division of Personnel Service of the Teachers College.

Dr. John Ben Jones is in the process of performing his daily duties as Miss Alma Zoller looks on. The patient is Vinal Schell.

Bureau of Health Service

The health office has the task of keeping students and teachers in tip-top condition so that the scholastic and social activities of the campus may be pursued by the students and teachers with physical vigor. Dr. John Ben Jones and Miss Alma K. Zoller, R. N., Head of the Division of Health and Physical Education, administer this service.

Stenographic Office

When test time comes around, the mimeograph machines and typewriters add to the general confusion of the stenographic office which includes operating the switch board for the college and the printing of all syllabi.

. . . It can be proved that man is a joiner. It would be hard to find a student in the Teachers College that . . .

Phi Sigma Epsilon

As the '48' 49 school year closes the Phi Sigs look back upon a year of abundant activity and numerous honors. We were particularly proud of our newly acquired fraternity house, and gave it a gala opening with an all-school open-house. An alumni smoker and numerous impromptu get-togethers brought us to the Homecoming festivities—Willie Lang with his squeeze box and halo on the Phi Sig float—the alumni coming in to renew old acquaintances—the Homecoming dance—(and the party afterward!) The Christmas dance—(oh! my)—followed by a new year and the opening of rush season. The rush smoker at the house and the famous Apache dance (ably assisted by Bartender Quinn) brought 37 new pledges into our ranks. Worm season—Walker's short-sheeting worm—a chilly field night—the march of the broom brigade—and the final formal initiation.

The Carnival season found the Phi Sigs at new heights—King Mark Fox—"Mr. Speaker," our prize-winning skit—Elwood Campbell and his fine MC job. The visit of the Phi Sigs from Maryville—The meetings at the house with Edwards and Enk contesting for oratorical honors—The All-Greek dance—the election campaigns—lead us to the crowning event of the year the glorious banquet and dance at the court of King Neptune in the spring.

Graduation of many of the "old" Phi Sigs to the rank of alumni places the young blood at the helm of the fraternity, looking forward to another great year.

Sigma Tau Gamma

The year 1948-49 will be remembered by various individuals for a variety of reasons. Politicians can never forget the ballot upset, statesmen can never forget the "Cold War," and the members of Sigma Tau Gamma can never forget Dave Rissler strumming Margie on his "geetar" while Tau voices blended in song —the mysterious appearance of certain Greek letters in blue ink in a certain place —Hell week and "Was I insubordinate, SIR?" —dinner meetings and "I'll take the rest of that chicken" —excursions southward after meetings and Freddie's delicious coffee. Yes, there are lots of things Taus will remember. On the serious side there are items like 36 new men —the Tom Angus Scholarship —Steve Melvin's swell administration and, of course, the women we loved —!!

Alpha Sigma Alpha

The year of '48' 40 in retrospect brings many memories to A. S. A. After having won the scholarship trophy to keep, we returned last fall determined to keep our scholarship high and still be the busiest girls of the campus.

We were really proud of Jean Leach as 1048 Echo Queen and Bev, Norma, Carol, and Jeanne as Home-coming attendants. The sleepy-eyed "Alpha Jama Breakfast" and the colorful Gypsy Dance brought us fourteen glamorous pledges.

The Founder's Day Banquet was delightful, with the alumnae entertaining.

The Christmas spirit was present at Miss Zoller's as we prepared to go home for the holiday. A. S. A. confetti girls at the carnival, the trio singing in the skit, and Azalea Belt as our candidate for carnival queen. February 12 was the big day of the Sweetheart Dance. Even though it rained, everyone's spirits were high.

Delta Sigma Epsilon

The good ship, S. S. Delta, lifted its anchors and set sail for a happy school year. After a few miles of sailing, the pledge dance was held in the main ballroom and everyone had a swell time. During the year, the Deltas dropped anchor at various places and one time they all went ashore to attend the swell street dance given them by their pledges. At another time, the anchor was dropped in Kirk Auditorium when cute Dee Kriner was crowned carnival queen. When the wind quit blowing at the end of the school year, the Delta's log contained many happy events of the year.

Blue Key

Blue Key is an honorary service organization formed to serve the students on this campus. In the past year it has served the school with many activities.

In the fall of 1948 the Homecoming, to which we all looked forward, proved to be the greatest success in years. It was a gala two-day event. On Friday evening we had a successful pep rally, the crowning of the queen, lovely Betty Miller, and a snake dance that led us to the high school field. The bonfire and music provided by the school band was conducive to building a greater school spirit than we had known in years.

We were also proud of our Student Directory this year. So far, few mistakes have been found and it certainly gives good service to students.

Then there are the Senior Day activities on the campus each spring when Blue Key members act as guides and hosts to the visiting high school seniors.

Members of Blue Key are ready to help any activity they can any time assistance is needed.

Pi Omega Pi

Pi Omega Pi, a national honor society in Business Education, was founded in 1923 at this college by Dr. P. O. Selby, the present sponsor. After 26 years, Alpha Chapter at Kirksville has an active membership of 36 and there are nearly 70 chapters of Pi Omega Pi in colleges and universities throughout the United States.

John Kimberly, president, and Dr. P. O. Selby attended the National Convention of Pi Omega Pi in Detroit on December 27-28, 1948.

Activities sponsored by Pi Omega Pi this year were the "Penny Guess" at the All-School Carnival, and a speech by Don Chaney, representative of the Southwestern Publishing Company.

During the past year, 1948-49, Alpha Chapter has initiated many new members, students having fifteen hours of business education or ten hours of business education and five hours of education and meeting the scholarship requirements of Pi Omega Pi.

Historical Society

Closely related to the Social Science Division classroom work is the Historical Society, which has the honor of being the oldest student organization on the campus. It is sponsored by Dr. Pauline Knobbs. Its present officers are Elwood Campbell, president; Tom Brown, vice-president; Robert Pfaff, secretary-treasurer; and Mary Kerr, reporter.

All faculty members and major students in the division automatically belong to the organization. Other student members are nominated upon recommendation by faculty members. They are then elected to membership by the members of the society.

Programs of the society are largely of the controversial issue type; however, an occasional social hour is engaged in by the group.

Baptist Student Union

Throughout the school year the B. S. U. sponsors many spiritual and social activities for its members and friends. Also during the summer months the organization is active for any of the students who remain for the summer term. Tom Harper heads this active program for Baptist students.

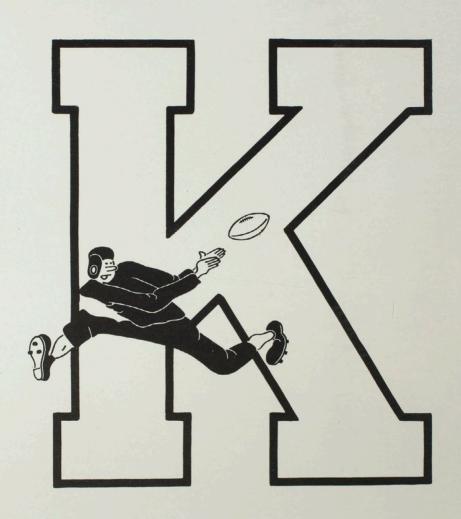

What would you like to do? See a football, basketball, or a baseball game? Or how about a play? Care for debate, or extemp speaking? What would you say to a big formal dance? You don't dance? . . .

. . . That's no problem; we will teach you. You like music? We have a band, an orchestra, a chorus, A Cappella choir, singers, pianists, enough talent to cast an opera. . . .

. . . Speech tournaments, interp reading programs, intramural sports; in fact, there is always something to be doing when lessons are finished and weekends roll around. Any number of dances, teas, a carnival . . .

. . . picnics, ball games, open houses, with music, cards, refreshments. You see, we have a plan, and work to have a well-rounded program of extracurricular ACTIVITIES.

Student Council

This year, as in the preceding years, the student body organization is governed by the college student council composed of a councilman and a councilwoman from each of the classes along with seven members elected by the student body. The members this year are: Francis Dant, president; Mark Fox, vice president; Edith Ford, secretary; Jim Cripps, treasurer; Evelyn Bliss, councilwoman; Floyd Shearer, councilman; Richard Erzen, councilmember at large; Dee Kriner, senior councilwoman; Luke Shoemaker, senior councilman; Winifred Kimler, junior councilwoman; Steve Melvin, junior councilman; Suzanne Vaughn, sophomore councilwoman; Don Merritt, sophomore councilman; Marietta Bartlett, freshman councilwoman; Elroy Hines, freshman councilman. Dr. C. H. Allen is the faculty sponsor.

The homecoming dance, October 30, 1948, supervision of the publication of the Freshman handbook, and numerous open houses on Friday and Saturday nights, were all planned by the student council. Perhaps the all-school carnival was the highlight of this year's student council activities.

Student Social Committee

A growing need for a student group to aid the Social Calendar Committee of the Student Council in planning social activities for the college resulted in the formation of the Student Social Committee early in the summer quarter. This committee, composed of twenty student members selected by the Student Council, works with the Social Calendar Committee and the Office of the Dean of Women in planning and activating a well-rounded program of social activities during the school year. The group is under the chairmanship of a member of the Social Calendar Committee and is sponsored by the Dean of Women.

Since its origin last summer the committee has been active in many ways. During the summer quarter there was an All-School Garden Party and an all-school picnic and fun night. At the beginning of the fall quarter the social activities of the orientation program, including the Freshman Frolic, were planned and carried out. The Union Room in Socialibility Hall was this committee's brainchild. The popular open houses after ball games were possible because of the committee's willingness to supervise them. The idea of a Spinster's Spree was fostered by the committee as well as the class teas held at intervals during the year. During its first year of existence the Student Social Committee has done much to improve the social life on the campus. It is a hard-working group, full of ideas that are due to benefit the student body.

Freshmen Orientation and Registration marks the beginning of each new year at the Teachers College. For quite a few hours the Freshmen take tests, get acquainted with the college and faculty and get signed up for their first college courses. All is not work, however. Social activities to help the freshmen get to know each other are carefully planned and carried out.

Football

Pittsburg, Kan., Sept. 17.—Art Hochstedler, in the closing seconds of a football game here tonight, went high into the air to pull down a pigskin tossed by Darrell Gourley. As the gun sounded seven seconds later the score stood, Kirksville Teachers 12, Pittsburg 12.

Marshall, Mo., Sept. 24.—The Missouri Valley Vikings won their 34th consecutive victory here tonight, defeating the Kirksville Bulldogs 20-0. The badly outclassed Teachers, sparked by the kicking of Morris Osburn, played a brilliant defensive game against the speedy Vikings.

Kirksville, Mo., Sept. 29.—At Stokes stadium the K. S. T. C. Bullpups edged out Kemper Military Academy by the narrow margin of 6-2 tonight. Three times Kemper penetrated deep into dogland but a staunch line broke up each drive within three yards of pay dirt.

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 1.—The Rockhurst Hawks fell to a 26-6 defeat tonight before the onslaught of the K. S. T. C. Bulldogs. Little Joe Asperger crossed the Hawk goal-line twice in the first half and Stan Sadich scored two more times in the second.

Kirksville, Mo., Oct. 8.—Tonight the Bulldogs, at Stokes Stadium for the first time this season, met Cape Girardeau in an MIAA conference tilt. Gourley tallied in the second quarter and Sadich went over in the fourth to give the Dogs a 12-0 victory.

Springfield, Mo., Oct. 15.—A desperate pass attempt in the last minute of a game here tonight gave Springfield a 12-6 margin over the Kirksville Teachers. The Teachers offense was weak but their defensive wall held the Bears to a minimum.

Kirksville, Mo., Oct. 22.—Coming from down under, the K. S. T. C. Bulldogs unleashed a brilliant second-half display of football talent tonight to defeat the Missouri U. "B" squad, 18 to 13. A forward pass, Gourley to Cannon, and two laterals, Cannon to Asperger to Sadich, gave the Dogs their first tally. Sadich went over again in the fourth quarter and another pass, from Gourley to Asperger put the game on ice. Missouri "B" led at the half 13-0.

Kirksville, Mo., Oct. 30.—The K. S. T. C. Teachers opened their Homecoming game this afternoon with a spirited drive that led to pay dirt before the bewildered Warrensburg Mules could establish their defense. Sadich crossed the pay-stripe before the game was three minutes old and Jack Wells added the extra point. However, the remainder of the match found neither team able to score and the game ended, Bulldogs 7, Mules o.

Maryville, Mo., Nov. 6.—The educated toe of a Bearcat player defeated the Kirksville Teachers this afternoon by the narrow margin of one point, 13/12. Both Bulldog tallies came as the result of passes, one from Osburn to Serwatka and the other from Osburn to Creath.

Rolla, Mo., Nov. 13.—The Rolla Miners and the Kirksville Bulldogs fought to a 14-14 deadlock here this afternoon. This marked the end of another season for the Kirksville eleven and brought its seasonal record to four wins, three losses, and two ties.

Kirksville, Mo., Nov. 22.—Last night the last MIAA conference games were played and the final listing found the Kirksville Teachers in fourth place. Williams and Sadich represented the Bulldogs on the all-conference second eleven. Thus the Bulldogs, under the coaching leadership of Jim Dougherty, came to the close of a successful season.

Homecoming

In the third homecoming since the continuation of that event after the war, the men of Blue Key outdid themselves and came up with one of the finest celebrations in the history of the college. The two days in October that were the scene of this year's festivities were packed with action. Friday night the pep rally in Kirk Auditorium, with Carl Fisher as m.c., featured Coach Jim Dougherty with an introduction of the Bulldog squad; Arnold McQuary, an ex-Bulldog, as guest speaker; the crowning of the Homecoming Queen, Betty Miller; and music by the Teachers College band. The freshman class provided a committee which worked with the men of Blue Key to plan the evening's program. After the ceremonies in Kirk the pepsters formed a snake dance that went all the way to Robinson Field for a big bonfire. The pep rally broke up fairly early to save strength for Saturday's activities.

Early Saturday morning Blue Key members, parade marshals, were out on the West side of Baldwin Hall to line up the parade. They worked in a cold drizzle to chalk positions on the street. No one thought the chances of a successful parade were very good. But by ten o'clock the sun had started shining on Kirksville and turned the day into an ideal parade day. From out of a galaxy of clever and original floats a judging committee chose the Industrial Arts Club's entry for first place. The Art Club was picked for second and the Phi Sigma Epsilon Fraternity entry for third. The Teachers College band, with the assistance of several visiting high school bands, furnished inspired music for the parade.

Saturday afternoon was probably the real highlight of the day. After the parade had made its impressions on the people, the power-packed Bulldogs came on the field, scored a touchdown in the opening minutes of the game and from then on held the Warrensburg Mules in a game that see-sawed back and forth with neither team able to score again. The closing gun found the 'Dogs a 7-0 winner.

The Homecoming dance with Russ Carlyle was turned into a real victory dance by the Bulldogs' success on the gridiron. A large crowd of students, faculty and alumni danced to Carlyle's music, listened to his vocalist, and agreed that this had been one of the finest, most completely planned, successful Homecomings in its recollection.

Debate Squad

For the second consecutive year the Kirksville debate teams, coached by Mr. Sherod J. Collins, of the Division of Language and Literature, have taken the highest ratings in both the junior and senior divisions at the Missouri State Pi Kappa Delta Tournament.

The season's schedule for 1948-49 followed a well-planned pattern with extremely close competition:

FRESHMAN TOURNAMENT (Intramural)
REGENTS AWARD TOURNAMENT (Intramural)
BRADLEY UNIVERSITY INVITATIONAL
MIDWEST SPEECH TOURNAMENT
WESTMINSTER ROUND ROBIN
PI KAPPA DELTA STATE TOURNAMENT
PI KAPPA DELTA NATIONAL TOURNAMENT
CENTRAL COLLEGE (Non-decision)
ST. LOUIS DEBATE TOUR

Bill and Steve Shinn, who have been teamed together for a major portion of three years, ended their debating career for the college with more than two-thirds of their sixty debates being victories.

Paul Andereck and Royal Miller received top rating in the senior division in this year's state tournament and have completed their second year of intercollegiate debating with a better than two-thirds average in more than forty contests. Miller and Åndereck won the prize money in the Regents Award Tournament in January.

Mary Shirley and Nancy Hanks won the highest rating in the junior college division of the state tournament. Mary Shirley started her intercollegiate career in that tournament with four wins and no losses. Nancy Hanks will be starting her third year as a squad member in September.

Mr. Collins, debate coach, was contest chairman for the state and national tournaments.

PAUL STRUB, Director; BILL DAVIS, President; SUZANNE VAUGHN, Secretary-Treasurer; BILL McClanahan, Vice-President; Walt Webber, Student Director.

Band

The sounds coming from Recital Hall every afternoon, are one reason why the band is well known. The outstanding performances given by the Northeast Missouri State Teachers College concert and marching band are another. Directed by Mr. Paul Strub, the fifty-five-piece band played at football games, basketball games, and parades. The band skit at the carnival will be remembered as one of the most humorous. The tour of this area made between the winter and spring quarters gave approximately 10,000 people an opportunity to hear the band perform.

The band is organized with student-elected officers. Besides spending many hours in rehearsals and giving frequent performances, band members find time to sponsor an occasional Open House and quite a few social meetings for members.

This is what it takes to make a great band. Long hours of diligent practice. Of course, morale is helped if you have good-looking gals to handle the batons. Recital Hall is the home of the band.

Christmas Week

The week before students leave the Teachers College for their Christmas vacation is one of varied activities. The Annual Faculty Tea, the Christmas Formal Dance, the Christmas Assembly all combine to send the students home in a fitting spirit to really celebrate Christmas.

The student body and faculty of the Teachers College enjoy the Christmas tea sponsored by the faculty.

Basketball

The 1948-49 basketball season found the Bulldog cagers badly weakened from the loss of several valuable players; among them Big Harry Gallatin, John Semanek, and Ralph Pink. Replacements were moved up, but the team still wasn't its old self from loss of considerable height. To compensate for this, Coach Boyd King worked the club into a faster-moving team with Erzen and Shearer as his spark-plug guards.

The Teachers battled their way to sixteen wins, while sprinkling only eleven losses over the season. Although not as impressive as in the two preceding years, the Bulldogs have added another successful season to their list.

After losing four conference games, the K. S. T. C. cagers took their last three in a row to finish third in the M. I. A. A. Conference. Springfield led the loop with Warrensburg second. Cape Girardeau fell just below the Bulldogs, then Maryville, and the Rolla Miners trailed the pack. The 'Dogs, however, led the conference scoring with 532 points, Cape a close second with 526, and the Champion Bears fell third with only 450.

As the season progressed, new talent began to show up among the Bulldog subs. Earl Perry and Don Thompson no doubt will see much service next season, and "Big-Red" Nichols showed, in the last few games, his ability to tally up points. So the 'Dogs, while losing Dodd, Erzen, Lewis, and Shearer, are accumulating replacements for the coming year.

^{*}Games played in Terre Haute Tournament.

Mid-West Tournament

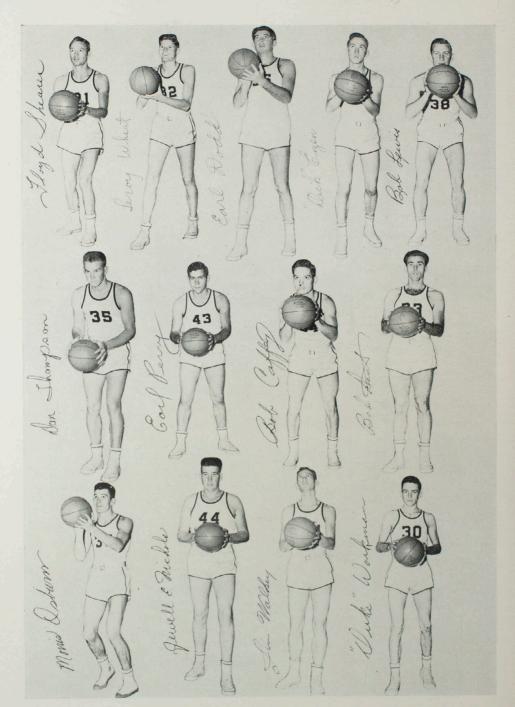

The close of `48 and opening of `49 found the Bulldog Quintet fighting for a place in the Mid-West Invitational Tournament at Terre Haute, Indiana.

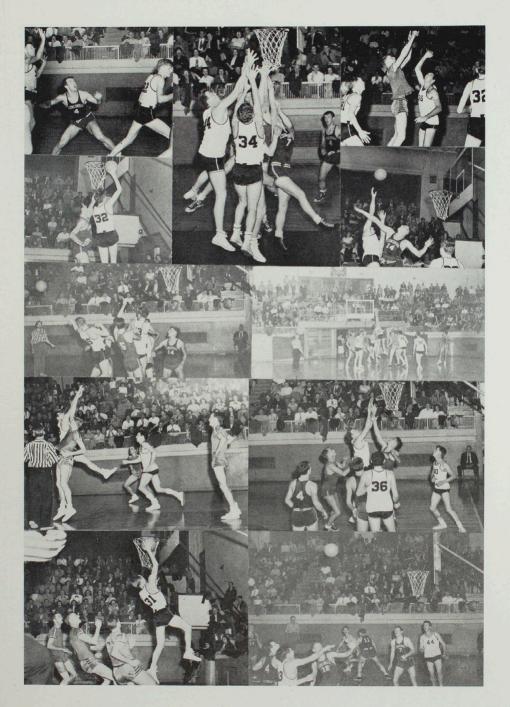

Arizona State of Flagstaff was the first Bulldog foe. The home cagers took a quick lead and led at the half, 32 to 12. Paced by "Pookie" Shearer, with 14 points, the 'Dogs came through with a decisive 47-37 victory. This team had eliminated the K. S. T. C. cagers from the 1947 N. A. I. B. Tournament in Kansas City.

In the second tilt the 'Dogs took on the Teachers College of Connecticut from New Britain, Connecticut. Again they sprung quickly into the lead and held a comfortable 34-18 margin at the close of the first period. Perry and Lewis each hit the net for 14 points in pacing the Bulldogs to a 65-52 victory.

Moving into the finals the Kirksville cagers met the host team, Indiana State. The Bulldog defense, which had been so outstanding in the preceding games, was shattered as the Indiana Cagers outscored the Dogs by 19 points, 62 to 43.

This was the second consecutive year in which the Bulldogs took second place in this tourney. On both occasions they dropped their final game to the host team.

The K. S. T. C. track squad, under the supervision of Coach James Dougherty, entered seven meets in 1948. Five of these were dual meets and the other two were M. I. A. A. Conference competition.

In the M. I. A. A. Indoor Meet the Bulldog cinder men came in fourth but later in the season at the M. I. A. A. Outdoor Events the home squad moved up to third place.

The dual meets found the track and field men coming out on the short end four times, while taking the limelight only once.

The Bulldogs bowed to the Missouri Valley Vikings, 81 to 56 at their first meeting and managed to accumulate only 35 points to the Vikings 77 at a return engagement.

In their engagements with Maryville and Central the 'Dogs fell less heavily. Maryville piled up 74 points to 62 for the home squad, while Central won by the small margin of 70 to 65.

The Teachers' lone victory came when they met Culver-Stockton. An inspired Bulldog squad put out all they had to pile up 105 points, allowing their weak opponents only 31.

Intramurals

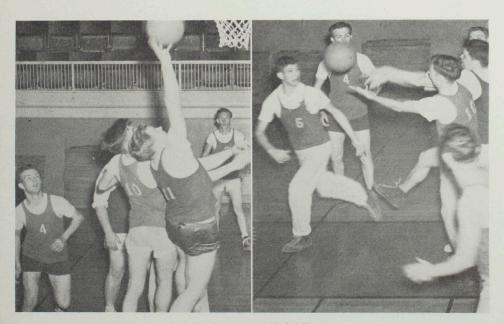

A well-rounded program of intramural athletics provided many students with an outlet for their leisure time during the '48'49 college season.

The volley-ball tournament, conducted in the fall, ended in a tie between McGrew's team and the Sig Taus, with the Phi Sigs placing third.

The men's round-robin basketball tourney also ended in a tie, this time between the Unco-ordinates and the Phi Sigs. The Unco-ordinates took the play-off, placing the Phi Sigs second and the Wildcats finished third. In the girl's single elimination tournament Stewart's Sinkers led a large field to capture the championship.

Boxing made its bid for a place on the campus this year with several boys entering the Golden Gloves Tournament of Champions. Kenny Rehg and Bruce Mason climbed to the top to be crowned at the St. Louis Arena along with twenty-six other champions.

Many other sports were entered into on a smaller scale, but these, too, went into the making of a good intramurals program.

Newswriters during the fall quarter

"Deadline is Tuesday" . . . "Read that proof" . . . "Where are those cuts? . . . "How many ads?" . . . were the sounds heard from the Index room to the Graphic Printing Office each week as the Newswriting class, sponsored by Miss Agnes Slemons, fought the battle of the deadlines.

Beats were run, articles written, pictures taken, copy batted out at the last minute, filler hunted with frenzy, and the paper managed to appear nine times per quarter as scheduled.

The staff for the summer quarter was Joe Baughman, Joe Goeke, Francis Hellner, Wanda Smock, Emory Cloud, James Butler and Nick Spase.

The Editor and Staff system was inaugurated during the fall quarter with the hard job falling to Joe Goeke, Greentop. The other members of the staff were Robert Conner, Jack Duke, Charles Fugate, Carol Funk, Carl Luse, Max Powell, Carolyn Pulliam, Roy Lessly, Willa Wilcoxon, John Gibbs, Sue Ward, Irvin Winthrop and James McCollom.

During the winter quarter Max Powell was elected editor. Staff members were Robert McCollom, Kenneth Farthing, Warren Hamilton, "Babe" Poston, Stan Serwatka, Floyd Shearer, Lois Field, Robert Connor, Jack Duke, Bob Dant, Charles Fugate, John Gibbs, Richard Lee, Carl Luse, Carolyn Pulliam, and Dorothy Stuart.

The spring class was represented by John Goeke, Beverly Black, Ruth Milhoan, Bill Richmond, Gil Demry, Warren Hamilton, George Deason and Gus Kumm. Charles Fugate, Memphis, was elected editor.

The largest paper of the year was the Homecoming Edition, October 29. This issue was composed of ten pages complete with pictures of queens, players, coaches and yell leaders.

Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities

For representation in the publication of "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities," for 1949, fourteen students from this college were chosen. Recognition in the publication means that the student was first officially recommended by the college he attends and then accepted by the organization. Each student who becomes a member receives, without cost, a certificate of recognition awarded by the organization and presented at the school, recognition in the annual publication for the year during which he was selected in the form of a write-up of his college and personal record and a listing in the index under the college from which he was nominated.

Opera

Cast and chorus for the opera, "Martha," during a rehearsal.

The major presentation of the preceding year was the opera, "Martha," under the direction of Miss Phradie Wells, of the music department. Supported by the college orchestra and chorus and with a talented cast, the opera was well received.

This year the operatic highlight was the presentation of the Gilbert and Sullivan Opera, "The Pirates of Penzance." Again Miss Wells was the director and a fine performance was given. In the leading roles were: Major Stanley, Stephen Melvin; the Pirate King, Harold Holtmeyer; Samuel, Raymond Goeke; Frederick, Robert Sloan; Sergeant of Police, Fred Hanes; Mable, Jean Leach; Edith, Marilynn Lambdin; Kate, Emilene Lehr; Isabel, Ann Beatty; and Ruth, Norma Shearer.

Orchestra

The 40-piece Teachers College orchestra, under the baton of Karl E. Webb, presented its first concert of the year, December 10, 1948, in Kirk Auditorium. Coupled with the fine technical and interpretative presentation of the musical scores, the orchestra pleased the audience with its stage performance. Showing evidence of fine musicianship and many hours of rehearsal on their numbers, the orchestra presented a well-chosen variety of music. Presented were selections by Bach, Hayden, Bizet, Sibelius, and Beethoven. For the first time the orchestra was in formal attire and this added to the polished performance of the evening.

A Cappella Choir

The A Cappella Choir, under the direction of Miss Phradie Wells, has presented many fine numbers this year.

The Echo

The Book

When yearbook planning time came around last fall, it found that the ECHO was in bad shape for planners. The supposed editor, Ercil Ewing, had graduated. Assistant Editor John Goeke, Business Manager Ollin Drennan and Baxter Stinson, his assistant, had to plan the book and to start putting the production together. When Ollin graduated at the end of the fall quarter the two assistants and their newly formed staff buckled down and began to fight picture lists and appointments at the photographers, got the student formal pictures taken, a lot of activities ready and were just getting into the swing of engraving copy at Christmas time. After the vacation Alexander's Studio had the student pictures ready and the mess in 110 Kirk Auditorium got deeper and deeper as the staff spent all its time mounting pictures, marking engraving instructions and packaging copy. By February 10 all the engraving was being made and well ahead of schedule, too. In fact, the ECHO was the first book to have all its engraving to the engravers. The fight for copy began and was won by the staff on March 14 just a month later. The book is in on time. Any omissions or errors can be said to be sacrificed on the altar of deadline.

The Echo

The Staff

Kenneth C. Sykes, ECHO advisor and photographer, drew the job of advising an almost inexperienced staff through the job of getting a book to press. His camera and darkroom work is good enough to make any editor's job easier.

Heading the staff because of graduation of Ercil Ewing is John E. Goeke, junior student from Greentop, with one year's experience on the Echo staff.

The Business Manager's job was taken by Baxter Stinson, Independence, when Ollin Drennan graduated and left that job open. Baxter had valuable experience with his High School annual.

David Janson, Excelsior Springs, brought his talents to work for the ECHO. Besides being a talented artist, he could do an ultra fine job of layout and mounting work. A novice at this type of yearbook architecture, Dave caught on rapidly and did fine work.

Another Freshman, Fred Hanes, Kirksville, brought some valuable experience from his position on the Kirksville "Tiger" last year. Fred put in a lot of time on the ECHO along with several other time-consuming jobs.

Now that we have taken care of the men on the staff we can move over to the more interesting and more attractive female section. To lead the list on this side is Nadean Farmer. In between working as Secretary to Mr. Sykes, and studying, Nadean typed reams of picture lists, answered countless letters and helped immensely.

Betty Finger, Senior transfer student from Webster Groves, added another experienced head to the huddle of ECHO planners. Staff member of the "Hatchet," Washington U. annual, Betty took to the ECHO like a duck to water and worked long and hard.

Last but not least of the Echoites is Elizabeth Roy, senior student from Kirksville. "Liz" decided she needed yearbook experience to teach English so she went to work to help beat deadlines and get the book out on time.

Francis Dant King of the 1949 ECHO

MISS CORNELIA OTIS SKINNER

Miss Cornelia Otis Skinner chose Francis Dant as King of the Echo during an interview with Editor Goeke in Moberly. Miss Skinner came to Moberly to give a program of dramatic monologues and very graciously consented to act as judge. She expressed concern with the difficulty in making a choice but finally picked up Francis Dant's picture, turned it over and wrote, "This is the King," on the back of it.

JOHN ROBERT POWERS

November 24th, 1948

Mr. John E. Goeke Editor, 1949 "Echo" 501 North Elson Kirksville, Missouri

Dear Mr. Goeke:

It has been a great pleasure to select the queen for your beauty section in your annual, "Eacho". The photographs of the candidates, which you submitted, were all so attractive that I found it difficult to make my selection without seeing and talking to each contestant

The winner, Gene Bowen, was selected on the basis of personality, character, and intelligence, as well as for natural beauty Ry choice was influenced, of course, by my great interest in and admiration for the Natural Girl.

If the contestants are ever in New York, it would be a pleasure to meet them. With best wishes to the contestants, to the staff of the "Echo" and to the students of NORTHEAST MISSOURI STATE TEACHERS COLLEGE, I am

Sincerely yours,

John Robert Powers

JRP:ea

Miss Gene Bowen Queen of the 1949 ECHO

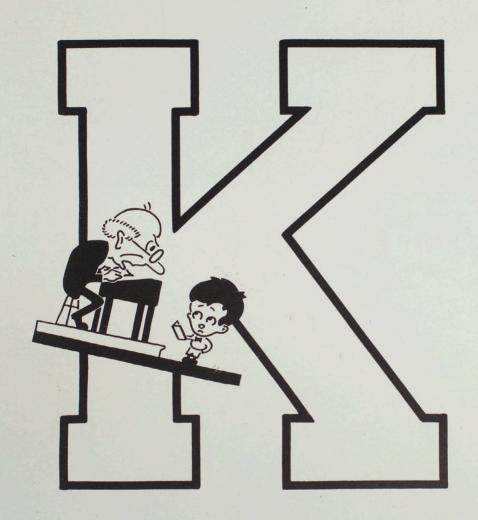

Every fall new freshmen enter the Teachers College to start their education. Every spring more seniors finish their work, get their . . .

. . . degrees and leave. From the time they go through freshman orientation until convocation week they usually manage to be a member of all of . . .

. . . the four classes. Freshman courses give way to the slightly advanced work of the sophomore. The end of the sophomore year finds the junior college work completed and a major and minor picked. The junior can . . .

. . . already see himself teaching a class of youngsters, English, woodworking, chemistry or typewriting. To the senior, college was all too short. The milestones of a college career are the CLASSES.

James Harvey Neville

The entire campus was shocked and saddened on the morning of February 18 when James Harvey Neville, 53, a member of the faculty of the Division of Social Science, died suddenly in his classroom in Pickler Memorial Library. Mr. Neville, who apparently had not been in ill health, was waiting for the 8 o'clock bell to start his class when he suffered a heart attack. Death was a few moments later.

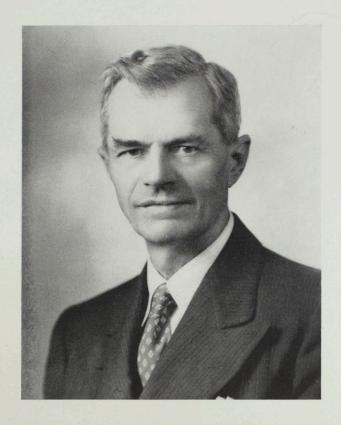

Mr. Neville had a great personality and a thorough knowledge of his field which made him one of the most universally liked and respected persons on the campus. His genuine interest in his students, his intense interest in seeing them succeed and his fine teaching ability caused students to flock into his classes, one of the finest recommendations a teacher can have.

Although Mr. Neville had been a member of the Teachers College faculty only since 1947, he had been in public school work for many years. He became principal of the Kirksville High School in 1924 and Superintendent of Public Schools of Kirksville in 1925, serving in that position until 1947 when he resigned to become a member of the college faculty.

Mr. Neville had served in two wars. During World War I he served with the 41st Artillery, 44th Brigade, as a Second Lieutenant. During World War II he was a Lieutenant Commander in the United States Navy.

Born December 30, 1895, in Springfield, Missouri, Mr. Neville was a graduate of the Springfield High School, attended Drury College, Southwest Missouri State Teachers College, George Washington University Law School, the Teachers College at Columbia University, the University of Missouri and had done extensive work toward his Ph.D. Degree at the University of Chicago.

Mr. Neville is survived by his wife.

Jacob Wilhelm Heyd

Jacob Wilhelm Heyd, who had been a member of the faculty of the college from 1915 until 1948, died at a hospital in Kirksville on the afternoon of January 27, 1949. Mr. Heyd was head of the Division of Languages and Literature from 1931 until his retirement at the end of the spring quarter 1948. Mr. Heyd was exceptionally well liked by students and faculty members due to his gentle disposition, his kindliness and his teaching abilities.

He was the author of "Anfanger Duetsch," a German textbook which he used in his beginning German classes, as well as many bulletins and translations. He served for many years as the faculty sponsor of the Student Council and as sponsor of other student groups.

Mr. Heyd was born January 8, 1875, in Kirksville, Missouri. He is survived by his wife.
